THE BEACON BALL.

A GOOD TIME HAD BY THE FIRE LADDIES.

Concise News of at Home and Abroad for the Quick Reader—Other News.

The Beacon's Ball.

RIDDLE—What is the difference between the Beacon Fire Company and the people of West Berkeley?

ANSWER—One always lends a helping hand, and the other never helps the lending hand.

The above riddle is propounded and answered because the members of Beacon Fire Company have always responded at any hour of the night or day to an alarm of fire. They have endangered their lives and ruined their clothing in their efforts to save life and property. They receive no remuneration for their services, but on the contrary they go down into their own pockets to keep up their own organization.

Recently it became absolutely necessary that a new fire bell, one that could be clearly heard in the remotest part of Berkeley, should be purchased.
The boys, with commendable enterprise, purchased the bell, and on Saturday they placed it in position in the belly of the engine house.

After they had made up their minds to purchase the bell, they determined to get up a grand ball and supper, and with the money so obtained pay off a part or all of the indebtedness of the bell.

They got out their printing, hired first class music, got up an elegant supper and gave the dance last Saturday evening, but the throng of West Berkeley people that they expected did not materialize, and the fire boys were greatly disappointed as this means that they have not only got to pay for the bell, but they will have to assess themselves to make up the shortage occasioned on account of the ball.

Although the crowd in attendance was not as large as expected it was an excellent lot of people, and they enjoyed themselves hugely.

The business men and property owners of West Berkeley should have purchased a large number of tickets, even though they could not attend, as they do not know at what time of day or night they may have to call upon these young men to save their stores or homes from the ravages of a fierce fire.
Those who were present, and there were a goodly number, were stayers, and it was not until the "Rosy morn stood tiptoe upon the misty mountain tops" that they put on their wraps and departed for their several homes.

Scrimmage and Lockup.

As far as weather was concerned yesterday it was charming, and yet there did not appear to be enough of exhibition in it for Tony Williams and Joe Parker. So they assisted nature by adding what the Town of Berkeley gives due license to sell, and its effects soon became apparent. from a friendly discussion words got hot, in consequence with their tempers which were heated by the town process. In fact words of even such high temperature did not seem to assuage the discussion. At or near a culmination one of those officers of the law, who are under the present reign always on hand, took part in what was now a melee.

The contestants were taken to the calabose and there allowed to reflect under the cool air which comes in daily, fresh and pure, like somebody's milk, from the Pacific ocean.

Later on the young fellows were visited and the temperature of their minds was found to have cooled to a normal degree and they were allowed to go where the air did not come to them in little square chunks through a grating.

There may be other punishment accrued but it will not probably come through the courts.

The Presbyterians of Berkeley have arranged for an elaborate celebration of the laying of the cornerstone of their new church on Thanksgiving day. Of the local ministers Rev. Dr. Ketchum, Rev. George B. Hatch and Rev. Dr.
Bentley will participate in the exercises. The placing of the stone and contents will be by J. M. Whitworth, president of the Board of Trustees of the church. Addresses will be made by President Kellogg of the University, Professor J. Le Conte and Rev.
H. C. McClintock, D. D., of the San Francisco-Theological Seminary.

HE IS IN JAIL.

SMITH WHOM BRADLEY SAYS WAS WITH HIM

Has Been Arrested in San Jose and Will be Brought Here this Evening.

Bradley's Accomplice.

Ever since the arrest of James Bradley by Deputy Kerns and Marshal Lloyd, the latter has been trying to find out from Bradley who he had with him during the times that he had committed the different burglaries. At first Bradley stated that he had done all of his work alone, but when the Marshal told him that he knew better he stated that he did have an accomplice and that his name was Smith, but that he had gone to San Jose several days before his (Bradley's) arrest. He gave the Marshal a description of Smith and that officer sent the same to the officers at San Jose with a request that they keep a lookout for Smith.

On Saturday evening Marshal Lloyd received a telegram from the Chief of Police of San Jose, that his man was in jail there charged with petty larceny and would be turned over as soon as called for.

Marshal Lloyd will return from San Jose this afternoon with his prisoner and it may be that he will know more about where the other goods have gone after he has had an interview with Smith.

Expensive Strawberries.

The late Moffitt, brother of the well-known James Moffitt had a decided predilection for farming and many were the experiments he carried on in his back yard.

One day an idea seized him that this same back yard would be a good place to raise strawberries for the family table, and he began his agricultural experiment. As usual his theories were elaborate, and he spent time, thought, money and trouble in reducing them to practice.

To the edification of the family, a tiny berry appeared, which grew day by day.

It was a great day in the history of the family when it was picked; the agricultural experiment was a success; strawberries would grow in the back yard. It was not thought expedient, however, to raise a box of them, sincone was worth just $8.—Oakland Saturday Night.

It Is Said

That some parties who rented a team from Frank O'Brien on Saturday last became careless and had a runaway. The vehicle was badly damaged.

That owing to the sudden illness of one of our compositors this afternoon the GAZETTE does not contain as much reading matter as usual.

That the editor of the GAZETTE celebrates the 40th anniversary of his birth today.

That the Hayward's Mail has not got much use for Sheriff White and is constantly ridiculing him.

That a fire is quite comfortable these days during the morning and evenings.

That now is the time to place your holiday advertisements in the GAZETTE.

That our City Editor had turkey for dinner yesterday. Wonder what he will have Thursday.

That Mrs. B. Bruchman thoroughly understands how to make fine coffee and everybody who partook of it Saturday evening last had words of praise for it.

That the bid of Oliver Cornwall for completing the upper portion of the Town Hall, was the lowest one presented to the Board of Trustees.

That the San Pablo correspondent of the Contra Costa News says there is no truth in the stories circulated in Berkeley that people in town were held up on the San Pablo road near the Red House a couple of Saturdays ago.

That the GAZETTE mentioned the fact that Oakland people wanted to get property in Berkeley in exchange for the former city's real estate. Now the newspapers there are trying to steal our factories. Woe betide them at high tide and don't let them get untied and see that they are firmly tied to the stake.

That Greer Harrison is going to burn Ambrose Bierce while he is in the fire himself. The public will be able to judge which cat has the strongest scent.

That the GAZETTE has a Thanksgiving every day on account of the public appreciation of it as a newspaper.

That on Thursday next we have set it aside as a day of giving thanks. President Cleveland and all the Governors of the different States may do the same. We lead, they follow.

That from all accounts gathered from different exchanges over the Coast Berkeley, at the present time, is the most progressive of them all.

That the song "Whistle and I'll come to you my lad" has lured more young people on to the road of destruction than all of the bicycles yet built.

That it is a cold day in Havana.
General Campos is getting left and that may not be right.

That it was a cold day here today, but our turkey is in sight.

That a big fat fellow attempted to whip the editor today. The b. f. f. was taken to the hospital right away.

That the GAZETTE does not use type setting machines. The types are placed in position by the fair hands of —Berkeley. All serene on the "Macosmy."

That the excuse made by the students when taken to task by the faculty on account of the comic paper was that they were only "joshing." The joke was too severe, and two heads were chopped off.

A Bad Kick.

The four fellows that were arrested in East Berkeley last week for vagrancy met with an unexpected setback. They wanted to put the officers to all the trouble they could and each one demanded a jury trial. They were very much disappointed when Judge Ames fixed the date for trial on the 16th of December, some four weeks, and want now to plead guilty instead of staying in jail that length of time.

Willie Kennedy, a 16-year old son of P. J. Kennedy, a prominent merchant of Vallejo, accidentally shot himself while on a hunting expedition, and died from the effects of the wound.

ALL FOR CHARITY.

THE JUNIOR ENDEAVOR SOCIETY OF LORIN

Hold a Bazaar and Raise $25 with Which to Assist Needy Families of Lorin.

Lorin.

The Junior's Aid Society, composed of youngsters ranging in years from eight to fourteen, conceived a plan for doing something for charity's sake. It took form in the shape of a bazaar entertainment. Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening was the time selected and the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Haven at Lorin was the place.

A large assortment of bric-a-brac was obtained and the young people managed to make a sale of everything that came to them. The idea of getting funds was to supply the wants of the poor people in that section of the town, about Thanksgiving day. The members worked hard and as well as they knew how. By so doing they were successful far beyond their expectations and thus have courage to do more in the same line in the future.

On Saturday evening there was a program consisting of singing, music and speaking which made the time pass off pleasantly not only to the young people but to many older ones who were present. A great deal of credit for the success is due to the untiring efforts of the president, Miss Ethel Stowes, Charlie Monson and Miss Carrie Haven. Of course all hands joined in and assisted. The society wishes publicly to thank Mr. and Mrs. Haven for the use of their residence which they so kindly donated, also to Mr. and Thomas Stevenson who made the candy and to Mrs. Whitehill, who furnished quite a number of the supplies. In fact they feel grateful to the public who so well bestowed their patronage upon the society's efforts.

About $25 was netted. It is a good sum and will go some ways towards cheering up the hearts of the needy when a majority of the people are supposed to be supplied not only with the common wants of life but quite a number of its luxuries.

In Holiday Attire.

Mr. C. Demetrick in speaking of the approaching holidays says, "Holidays are coming and we are preparing for them. Our store during the holidays will be the cream of all. We are going to sell you good goods and cheap. We not only talk but we mean business."

In our grocery store we have received a new stock of fresh goods; canned goods, extracts and spices. Our teas and coffee cannot be beat either for quality or prices, anywhere. Our hams and bacon are as sweet as sugar and cheaper than elsewhere. Now in butter and eggs we will have a large supply. Our butter has been selected from the best creameries and our eggs are being daily received from Berkeley and San Pablo. Furthermore we guarantee them.
Our raisins are the best grown at Fresno.
We have all kinds of this year's growth that are equalled by none. We have enough to supply everybody in Berkeley. The sales upon fruit and produce have proved that we are the largest dealers in the town. Our stock is of the largest kind kept in accordance with the season. We have received a lot of lemons, limes and oranges of very good quality for this time of year, also apples, pears, grapes, and bananas. Berries are somewhat short now but anybody who desires them will be supplied if they give orders in advance.

Our vegetable department will be selected with the greatest care and always fresh. Our lettuce and celery are crisp and delicate, also beans, peas, lima bean sprouts are fine and a plenty of them.

There is now on hand 800 sacks of the best potatoes raised in the State of Washington which we will sell to you for one dollar per sack and satisfaction warranted. A little garlic, good for the breath after eating turkey can be had with the other things.

In squashes we have four tons of the finest for pies and enough to supply the whole town. Our fish market will not be so well supplied but parties desiring can have anything they want by giving their orders before wanting. Fresh oysters, crabs and shrimps will hereafter always be on hand.
We keep candies in small quantities but good, fresh and cheap. Cigars and tobacco of all kinds in quantities to suit.

LOOK OUT FOR TURKEYS. We have a contract for the holidays, either alive or dressed, both goshers and hens of extra good quality will be sold at going rates.
You don't have to go out of town for them.
Give your orders early so we can select the best for you.

CRANBERRIES. CRANBERRIES.
Plenty in our place, also chickens and game.
After all don't forget we have the finest cider ever made on the Pacific Coast. We have sold during the past month about 400 gallons at retail. That is not so very much but a good deal for the town. Those who bought once, buy again and again. Our stores are at the corner of University and Shattuck Avenues. C. DEMETRIK.

Yesterday was a very quiet Sunday in Berkeley. There were, however, a large number of visitors from Oakland

The next two days their work will be self strictly hereafter to the hotel business.

Every little while we hear of an epidemic prevailing at Reno, Nevada.
Now a well pronounced case of varioloid has come to light in the State University there. There must be something radically wrong about the health care of that place.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church of West Berkeley will give a chicken dinner in Taylor's Hall on Tuesday, December 3, 1895. It is for the purpose of raising funds, in order to do better work. Understand it that the ladies have charge of this matter and are going to make a success of it.

The weather clerk is preparing to open the floodgates of Heaven on Thursday next, the date upon which the great intercollegiate football game is to be played. The game will be played rain or shine, but if it should rain numerous housewives would find that dinner will not be kept waiting by their husbands on that day.

The Berkeley small boy is a terror to the football players on the campus, and to the other students. They have been warned time and again that unless they behaved they would get into trouble. On Saturday they commenced throwing stones and now one of them is in jail. In the future the University police will keep them off the grounds.

The Alameda Argus takes an exception to the statement made by the Examiner that "one cannot walk a block on one of Alameda's thoroughfares without meeting a man or a boy who has lost a leg or an arm through a railroad accident." The Examiner refrains from saying that in San Francisco with its trolley and cable cars a man does not get off with the loss of a leg or an arm. Over there they kill him and mangle him in a jiffy.

The gentleman who wrote the Democratic campaign song in 1892 entitled "Four more Years for Grover" died a few days ago in Philadelphia.
Whether he died from remorse or because he has had to endure Grover for nearly three years has not been decided. The Fresno Republican states that the fact that he would have to live one year and a half longer under Grover's rule was more than the poor man could stand, so he just up and died.

HE IS NOT GUILTY.

THAT IS WHAT A SAN FRANCISCO JURY

Said Within Thirteen Minutes After They Retired Today in the Ashworth Case.

Special dispatches to the GAZETTE.

Not Guilty.
San Francisco, Nov. 25.—The jury after being out thirteen minutes, brought in a verdict of not guilty in the case of Street Superintendent Ashworth. The charges against him come through the Grand Jury on account of which he was indicted and tried.

Against the Canal.

New York, Nov. 25.—A telegram to the New York World this morning states that a very serious blow has been dealt to the Nicaraguan canal project by which a waterway across the isthmus was to be built. Now there will be unavoidable delay. The report comes from the canal commissioners. There will be an investigation before anything more can be done or decided upon.
An engineering question of feasibility has arisen. President Cleveland now has the report in his hands and it is being considered and his ideas upon the subject will be given to the public in connection with his annual message.

The information obtained by the Commission will make a long delay, possibly eighteen months. In the report the Commission say that it will require Congress to appropriate $350,- 000 to carry out the work to form a basis for future business. It is estimated that the cost will be $133,472,- 893 to finish the work already commenced on the canal. This amount is nearly double the amount that the Maretime Company considered would be unconditionally suffered. Their estimate was $68,893,660.

The operating department of the Southern Pacific Railway Company has been shook up, and soon the yards at Oakland and San Francisco will be placed under the charge of one man who will be termed Terminal Superintendent.

In Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Hon. J. Sterling Morton, Chief of the Bureau of Agriculture, is in this city strictly on business connected with his department.<

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1895.

The GAZETTE will be pleased to receive personal or society notes, news of engagements, weddings, parties, etc. Contributors should sign their correct names and addresses, not for publication but as evidence of good faith. Address all communications to the editor.

OPEN SIXTH STREET.

The property owners on Sixth street should present a petition to the Board of Trustees at its next meeting, asking that Sixth street be opened to the county line. It is an urgent necessity that this should be done. At present there is no direct roadway from Berkeley to the Stock Yards, Golden Gate and Emeryville, because Sixth street within a portion of the limits of Berkeley is not opened. If the property owners will present a petition at the next meeting of the Board, the members will act upon the matter at once. They all know the urgent necessity of opening Sixth street, and of the great benefit that it would be to Berkeley, but they are powerless to do anything unless petitioned by the property owners.

The opening of Sixth street means that the business of Golden Gate the Stock Yards and Emeryville will be landed at this point, as all the freight for these sections now comes to Oakland by the Creek route. We need the business of these people, and we can have it if we will open Sixth street. The opening of this street means a continuous roadway to Emeryville, and this means that there will be an increase in the value of property on Sixth street. It is to be hoped that the property owners will attend to this matter, and have a petition for doing the same before the Board of Trustees at its next meeting.

GOOD FOR US.

This morning Piper, Aden, Goodall & Co. commenced carrying passengers between San Francisco and Vallejo for 10 cents. How long this will continue it is impossible to tell. In the meantime, however, the people of Vallejo will reap the benefit, for thousands of people will visit that town just because it is a nice ride on the bay at a cost of you might say nothing. All of these people will spend fifty cents or a dollar while in Vallejo, at the least calculation and this will place in circulation in that town at the smallest estimate $5000 per month.

What is good for Vallejo is good for other places and especially Berkeley. Vallejo owns its own wharf with facilities for the landing of numerous vessels, consequently there are numerous parties who are willing to run boats there in order to get the freight and passenger business, and the one that can hold out the longest will have it. This same state of affairs would exist in Berkeley if we had a wharf. There are numerous crafts about the bay that have been driven out of business by railroads and steam schooners that would soon be utilized as freight and passenger boats between Berkeley and San Francisco, if there was a wharf where they could land. Piper, Aden & Co. would very soon have a passenger service as well as a freight service, as they would keep others out if possible. It is immaterial to the people of Berkeley who runs the steamers as long as we have cheap freight and transportation and frequent trips to and from San Francisco. In addition to this the Stockton, Sacramento and Vallejo steamers would stop at our wharf each day. This would save our people who want to travel by steamer the inconvenience of going to San Francisco. It would also bring the Oakland passengers here.

The wharf is Berkeley's salvation and every person living in the town who has a vote should cast it for bonds with which to build the wharf. Don't let it be said that our people have thrown away one of the best opportunities offered for the prosperity of Berkeley.

A well known business man in Oakland was approached by a solicitor of the GAZETTE a few days ago and was asked to put an advertisement of his business in the paper. He answered that he did not believe in advertising in the newspapers as it cost too much money. "If I were to advertise in the Berkeley, Oakland and Alameda papers it would cost me over $200 per month. I can get 10,000 circulars for $6 and use them in each of the towns. It does not pay to advertise in the newspapers when you can let people know with circulars at a great deal less cost." On Saturday we passed this man's store and found that he had scarcely a customer in it, while the store next door to him, whose proprietor advertises in the newspapers of Alameda, Oakland and Berkeley, had his store crowded with people, who kept an array of clerks busy waiting upon them. If that same man would come to Berkeley the next day after he sends his circulars out here, he will find the majority of them in Strawberry Creek. As the people of Berkeley do not go hunting through Strawberry Creek for advertisements of business men, they never see this man's circulars and consequently do not know that he is in business, hence his store is empty and he is crying that there is no business. There are a number of others both in Oakland and Berkeley who are just as short sighted as the man we refer to, but we will not mention their names as that would advertise them.

It is very commendable on the part of the Oakland Times to write up the manufacturing industries of West Berkeley, but when that paper claims that they are a part of the industries of Oakland, we object. Berkeley is just as distinct from Oakland as Oakland is from San Francisco, and it has the best sites in the State for manufacturing purposes, all of which will, in a very short time, be utilized. Berkeley, with its new wharf, when it is built will become a great rival of Oakland, and it would not surprise us if, in a few years the name of Oakland will be a thing of the past as that town will be absorbed by Berkeley.

CLOAK DEPARTMENT

The enormous business we are doing in this branch of our store is simply astonishing and far exceeds our most sanguine expectations. There must be some prices for everybody that has looked at our garments have most emphatically declared them superior to anything seen in San Francisco at any time like such prices.

Our preparations were made long before the rise in the cloth market and therefore we made our purchases under favorable circumstances by which our customers profit.

For instance, we sell a boucle jacket with large mandarin sleeves and velvet piping at $7.50, a splendid fitting garment. An imported broadcloth double cape braided top and bottom with soutache braid, in black, brown, navy and electric, $5.75 and $7.50, an extraordinary value.

Heavy covert jackets with velvet collars, $7.00. Plush capes $6.50. Plush capes trimmed with soutache $9.00. Boucle capes trimmed with real Thibet $15.00.

An Extraordinary Variety of Fine Garments to suit all Tastes.

Our Customers are Cordially Invited to Inspect our Cloak Department.

A CENTURY HENCE.

Samples of Items That May Then Appear In the Papers.

A horse, an animal said to have once been quite common in our city streets, was seen in this city yesterday. He attracted much curiosity and he was followed wherever he went by immense crowds. It is almost impossible to believe that our ancestors could have trusted their lives to so formidable a creature. It is understood that the animal escaped from the Equine Food abattoir in Brighton.

An almost unprecedented event happened in this city last evening, when Mr. and Mrs. John Brownsmith celebrated the anniversary of their marriage. The Brownsmiths were married a year ago. It is quite remarkable for a couple to live so long together in the state of wedlock, and their celebration naturally drew to their residence a dense throng of admiring friends. Congratulations were poured upon the happy pair, with wishes that they might continue together long enough to observe the second anniversary of their wedding.

The directors of the Euripides Manufacturing company have been convicted of the charge of failure to examine into the accounts of their treasurer, and have severally been sentenced to imprisonment in the state prison for a term of five years. Their counsel argued that, inasmuch as the treasurer's accounts, as shown by expert examination, were faultless during his ten years of service and that no suspicion had ever fallen upon him, the sentence should be lighter, but the court very justly remarked that the offense was the same as if the result had been severe loss to the stockholders.

It was curious to see a pedestrian in Washington street today, the first one that has been seen in the city for many years. He occasioned no small amount of vexation to the bicyclists, in whose way he was getting continually. There can be no objection to people walking in their own houses or in the country, where there is plenty of room, but it is clearly out of the question that the practice should be permitted in our crowded city streets.

The death of Solomon Strongmind, which occurred this morning, calls to mind the remarkable fact that during his long residence of five years or more in this city he has never mysteriously disappeared for even once. Undoubtedly Mr. Strongmind was somewhat eccentric in his habits generally, but in this especial matter the controlling cause must have been something far more potent than mere oddity.

A man appeared on the street dressed in trousers and cutaway coat yesterday.
He was promptly arrested and carried to the station house. When he next made his appearance he had donned the petticoats and other garments appropriate to his sex.—Boston Transcript.

WHAT NORDAU HAS DONE.

Professor Lombroso Has High Praise For the Author of "Degeneration."

In "Degeneration" he has the great merit of combating certain dominant influences, particularly that of mysticism, which, recrudescence in these latter days, thanks to certain erratic ge-nuses, has led astray a vast throng of talents. In this book, too, he is ever the man of our century who has most felt the pulse of his times, and he has not only put his finger on our most open wound—on that egotism which is sterilizing our moral sense and rendering us cruel to one another—but he also has succeeded in finding its explanation in the special tendencies of the degenerate; whether it be the higher class degener-ates who invents the strangest freaks to catch the public eye—as weddings in a balloon or Cardinal Lavigerie's crusades—or the imitative degenerates who deem themselves original in simply copying.

Finally he has had the supreme merit of applying psychiatric research to literary criticism. He has carried this reform to its utmost applicability, seeking, with that audacity, intrepid even to insolence, which he exhibited in his "Conventional Lies," to demolish the reputations most firmly established. And thus he has been able to overthrow the work of the French and German Symbolists and Decadents, who proclaim science untrue because in 100 years of toil she has not given them the key to all the mysteries. These pages of his are among the most splendid written in this century, such as could be wrested from an artist thinker by the sight of four idlers, who insult the legion of timeless workers busy in searching and researching nature, even in her most recesses. And very just is his diagnosis of them—that they have for their characteristics a nebulousness of mental representation, a confused and motley imagination, too much eroticism, an abnormal demotism which causes them to observe things only in relation to their own selves.—"Nordau's 'Degeneration.' Its Value and Its Errors," by Cesare Lombroso, in Century.

Sharpening a Pencil.

From childhood up man, naturally destructive, with an inherent desire to smash things, has been taught to take care of everything that is nice, tidy and ornamental. If you want to know how well the lesson has been learned, watch men sharpen pencils. Did you ever see one begin at the end that has the pretty gift letters on it? The rudest and most careless man will turn the pencil end for end to whittle on the plain part.— New York Press.

Assistance Not Necessary.

"Help! Help!" cried the man who was being robbed.
"Calm yourself," said the highwayman. "I don't need any assistance."— Town Topics.

The Bonnet's Peculiarity.

"Her bonnet is too young for her."
"Yes, and the older it gets the younger it looks."—Detroit Tribune.

Mrs. N. E. Williams, who conducts the Delaware street notion store, is doing a flourishing business. The reason for this is because she sells her goods at a small profit, and consequently sells a large amount. Toilet soap is sold three cakes for 25 cents; Coate's machine cotton, six spools for a quarter; tobacco of all kinds, three packages for 25 cents and all other goods in proportion.

FOREVER AND A DAY.

Urges me not, I pray,
All the air is golden;
Every thorn spray
In the sunlight blazes
And my thoughts are hidden In the warbling thrushes.
Urges me not today.
Oh, when winds of May Shake the boughs with laughter Till they toss and sway, Till they kiss and sever, Speak not of hereafter, Breathe not of forever, Give me but today.
—J. K. Wetherill in Travelers' Record.

WHAT A LETTER DID.

How a Southern Congressman Innocently Made a Lifelong Enemy.

"Speaking of stenographers," said a gentleman well known in Washington, who for a number of years represented a Louisiana district in congress, "I once had a secretary, an unusually careful and competent fellow, too, whose slight slip in a typewritten letter to a constituent of mine cost me that gentleman's friendship, a friendship valued much more highly than I can express.

"This is the way it came about: At a time when I was well nigh submerged with committee duties I received a letter from the head of one of the most influential and widely respected families of the state. His residence had just burned down, he wrote me, the loss coming at a moment when it affected his financial matters to no inconsiderable extent. Could he not presume upon our many years of friendship to the extent of asking a loan of $250, until the insurance companies should settle his claim? I was deeply moved to learn of his misfortune, and immediately dictated, along with a number of other letters, the following lines to him:

"My Dear Sir—I am greatly pained to hear of the calamity which has come upon you. I regret I have not $250 in available funds at present; will send check in a day or two."

"Promptly enough the check went, but with equal promptness it was returned to me, with no word of explanation. I own I was surprised, but concluded he must have received his insurance money, and the circumstance was gradually forgotten. But it was very forcibly recalled to my mind when next I paid a visit to my home, for he did not call upon me, as he had always been wont to do. On the contrary, he shunned a meeting with me.

"Imagine my dismay upon finding that the letter I had sent him, in the most kindly spirit possible, contained these words: 'I regret I have got $250 in available funds; will send check in a day or two.' In vain I explained, apologized, implored. To his dying day he never forgave what he termed my studied and unwarranted affront.

"That is what the touch of a finger upon a wrong key did for me, and for years I have never mailed a letter, long or short, without first subjecting it to the most rigid scrutiny. I tell you, sir, it pays to be watchful in this respect."

—Washington Star.

The Last Straw.

Henry Van Meter, who died in Bangor about 25 years ago at the advanced age of 110, was a genuine old Virginia dandy who drifted down east in some mysterious way in the early part of this century.

He imagined himself charged with inspiration from various spirits and was in reality unbalanced in his mind for the greater part of the time, on account of the superstitious beliefs which possessed him.

At one time he was summoned to court as witness in a certain case, and the counsel on each side badgered him with questions until his wits became so entangled that his answers grew quite wild and preposterous. Noticing the distress and confusion of the poor old witness, the judge, who was a most kind hearted man, hushed the lawyers and put a simple question to the bewildered dandy, with the intention of bringing him back to the starting point.

This third assault, for so Van Meter regarded the kindly judge's interposition, proved the last straw to the old dandy.

"Now, look a-heah, yo' ole gray haired gemman up on de bench dar," he broke out, shaking a trembling forefinger at the judge, "don' yo' interfere wid dis yer business at all. Dis chile's got jess as much as he can do to take care ob dese two fellers down heah, an dat's de truf!"—Youth's Companion.

A Dog in a Crowd.

It is really cruel to take a dog, and particularly a small one, into a crowd. No one possessing any imagination would ever do it. Can you fancy what the feelings of a little animal must be when it finds itself in a perfect forest of legs, each leg provided with a foot shod in hard leather and liable to come down on one of its poor little paws? Its small brain must be in a ferment of apprehension all the time, and if it could command any language it would probably be of a powerful kind.—Philadelphia Ledger.

How They Eat.

The following is the daily ration of the animals at the Jardin des Plantes in Paris: Ten pounds of flesh for each lion, tiger and bear; seven pounds for each panther, three pounds to six pounds for the hyena, one pound for the wild cat, and two pounds for the eagle.

There is a "rocking stone" in Sullivan county, N. Y., which is estimated to weigh 40 tons, and which is so evenly balanced that the strength of one finger is sufficient to set it in motion.

The British Medical Journal states that the strain of railway racing must sell upon the drivers, and either they must work shorter hours or that greater risk must be run.

In the Ural mountains the peasantry believe that if a wolf sees a man before the man sees the wolf, the man will be dumb and remain so as long as the wolf lives.

Adeline Street Sewer.
Resolution Ordering the Work No. 49 A

RESOLVED THAT THE PUBLIC INTEREST and convenience require the work hereinafter described, and the Trustees of the Town of Berkeley hereby order the following street work to be done according to the specifications therefor adopted November 22, 1895, to-wit:

That the Easterly side of Adeline street in said town from the center line of Ashby avenue to a point 40 feet northerly, be sewered in the official line and grade with a six-inch vitrified ironstone pipe sewer with four-inch Y branches, one for each lot subdivision along the line of the work, and with one lampole at the northerly terminus of said work. The location of said sewer shall be two feet west of the easterly line of said Adeline street.

The Clerk of this Board, the Town Clerk, is hereby directed to publish this Resolution for two days, and notice of said work, inviting sealed proposals or bids for doing the work and referring to the specifications posted and on file, also for two days, both in the Berkeley Gazette, a daily newspaper published and circulated in this town, hereby designated for that purpose. Said notice shall require a certified check or a bond, either as prescribed by law, and for an amount not less than ten per cent of the aggregate of the proposals, if where he is directed to post said notice with specifications conspicuously for five days on or near the Council Chamber door.

Adopted by the Board of Trustees at meeting held November 22, 1895, by the following vote: Ayes, Trustees Gage, Jones, Cripps, Martin, Durrell, Hoff and President Richards. Nays, None. Absent, None. Attest: M. L. HANSCOM, Town Clerk. Nov 25 21
